IPITOMI AWARDED HIGHLY COMMENDED IN ITSPA 2009 AWARDS

ACCREDITATION ENDORSES IPITOMI'S HOSTED TELEPHONY SERVICES FOR THE ENTERPRISE

UK, 17 December 2009 – Ipitomi, ICT service provider, and sister company to Pasporte, today announced it has been awarded highly commended in the Best Business Internet Technology Services Providers' (Large Enterprise) category, in the UK's industry body for Internet Telephony Services Providers' Association (ITSPA) 2009 Awards. This is the first time Ipitomi has received this accreditation, which recognises the company's expertise in designing, delivering and maintaining managed VoIP services for the large enterprise business user.

Ipitomi was chosen by ITSPA for its flexible and on-demand hosted telephony solutions and IT infrastructure. The Ipitomi solution provides its customers with excellent and consistent service delivery, as well as feature-rich functionality which includes previous call lists; company directories; integrated and converged voicemail; unified messaging; extension mobility, and call recording.

Philip Gunstone, Product Manager at Ipitomi says; "Receiving this accreditation from a well-known industry body is a true endorsement of our success within the enterprise market. It highlights our experience in continually delivering enterprise-class hosted IT and telecoms services and solutions that reduce total cost of ownership and increase productivity at our customer's organisations.

"Looking ahead to 2010, we will continue to invest in best-of-breed telephony technologies in order to provide our customers with increased business agility, and reliable, scalable IT infrastructures to cope with today's changing business demands."
